

RELAX

With an ActiveRelease.NET website, you don't need to know how to do any programming. Put to use our knowledge and your information to produce a first-rate website in a cost efficient manner AND, do it all in a few minutes!

With many different designs to choose from, a professional-grade website is within easy grasp for you and your practice.

We've taken the middle-man out of purchasing a website. With zero in development costs, you can have a high quality website with low overhead.

So, relax . . .
We've been building websites for 15 years

STANDARD FEATURES WITH EVERY WEBSITE:

- A professional home page with your picture
- Several designs to choose from:
 - Change designs anytime at no charge with a click!
- A contact us page with useful features for patients:
 - Address and phone numbers of your practice
 - A map link to see your office location online
 - A live weather forecast for patients to view
 - Door-to-door directions just by entering their address
 - Patients can request appointments, with emails sent to you
- A Calendar of events to show your patients
- Articles you can write and post easily to keep patients returning:
 - 13 quality starter articles to get you going
- A user forum to use as a FAQ, or a special evening session
- Easily post links to other websites of interest to patients

TO EASILY MAINTAIN YOUR WEBSITE, WE INCLUDE:

An online word processor with familiar tools to make maintaining your website easy, and fun! Use it with a PC, MAC, Unix, or Linux. So go ahead, edit your pages, post as many articles as you want. With no need to hire developers to make changes to your website, your website will be under your control.

Edit your contact information with ease anytime. If you add a new phone or fax line, change addresses or email addresses, you can update your site immediately at no charge.

WE ALSO OFFER
MANY WEB
SERVICES

ADDITIONAL SERVICES AVAILABLE TO YOU:

- We can help you get a domain name & email addresses
- Being interviewed for an article? We'll add it to your site
- Want to put a movie on your website? We can make it happen!
- Need a newsletter to send to patients? Setup time: 5 minutes
- Need a website in another language? We can do that!
- We do special designs and projects such as individual websites, magazine and newspaper ads and brochures that utilize the experience gained from several fortune 500 companies.
